Bethany

A place to learn, to dream, to create, to achieve.

Alone in the tranquillity of Bethany we set personal goals and strive to reach them.

Through our achievements as individuals we discover our talents and abilities.

Working with others as students and organization members we reach broader goals.

Together we present our accomplishments to the world around us.

Through all that we achieve alone, with others, and as a college, we discover our values and ourselves.

We take our achievements as Bethanians with us as we leave, to become the foundations for our goals of the future.

Activities

Homecoming

Sarah Weppeler, senior class president, was chosen Homecoming Queen during October 5th festivities. She is pictured at upper left with escort Doug Selwyn. Members of the court and their escorts are; top row, Suzanne Abbott and Dean Lysiak, Elizabeth Wells and Tom Neil; bottom row, Janice Creamer and Lenny Zinkam, Claudia Rippe and Tim Keating, Jean Newman and Jack Alexander.

Phi Mu sorority sisters congratulate the Queen.

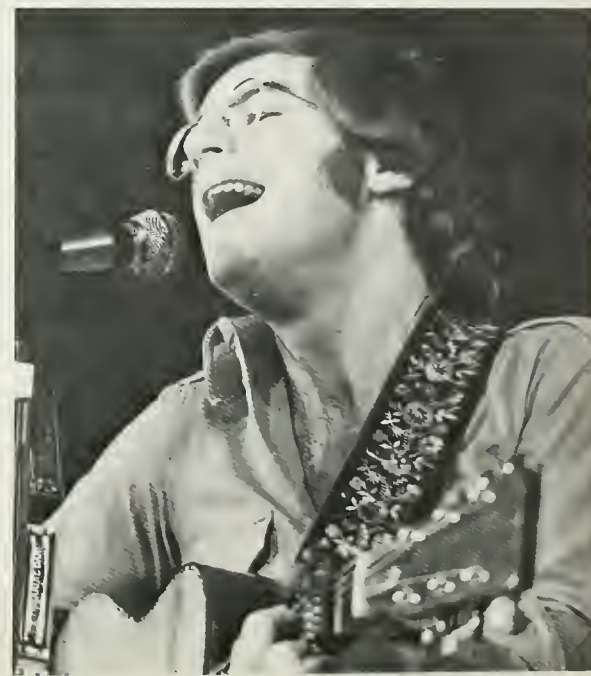

Mt. Airy performs at outdoor concert in early fall. At lower right is John Martyn who appeared with John Sebastian at Homecoming Weekend concert.

Artists in Concert

The Cultural Activities Committee presented several artists in concert including Dan Kamin, mime; Jack Thomas, "Mark Twain on Stage"; and William Marshall, a noted black Shakespearean actor. Kamin and Thomas also held student workshops on mime and stage makeup techniques.

Paul Winter
Consort

The Paul Winter Consort performed for us on April 5, making music with an assortment of instruments including coconuts, kettle drums, and mixing bowls. The group demonstrated their techniques the following afternoon in a workshop.

Barry Manilow

The Entertainment Committee presented Barry Manilow and his group in the first concert of Spring Weekend, April 25-27.

Pure Prairie League

Pure Prairie League performed during Spring Weekend on April 26. They gave what some students called "one of Bethany's best concerts" and were called out for five encores.

Eureka played the following day in an outdoor concert held in Old Main Quadrangle. We all helped celebrate the birthday of the group's lead singer.

Speakers

This year's wide variety of speakers included Alan Ginsburg, named Steinman Poet of the Year; Mark Lane, whose topic was "Who Killed JFK?"; John Wallace Spencer, who discussed his views on the mysterious Bermuda Triangle; and Roger Mudd, CBS-TV anchorman, who spoke on "Inside the Congress".

Bethany College Theater

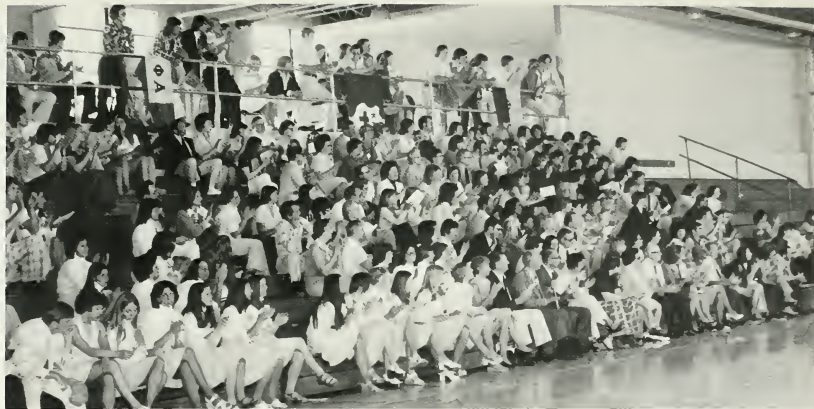

Dramatic productions included major plays "The Real Inspector Hound" and "After Magritte" by Tom Stoppard, "Taming of the Shrew" and "Romeo and Juliet" by Shakespeare, and the spring musical "The Beggar's Opera" by John Gay, presented on Parents Weekend. Bethany College Theater also produced several studio productions.

Beggar's Opera

Greek Sing

The Phi Mu and Phi Kappa Taus were selected as winners of Greek Sing on Mother's Day, May 11. Judges were Mrs. Underwood, Mrs. Gresham, and Mr. Judy.
